9 Short St, Brunswick Heads

A Bruns Charmer

Built in the 1940s, this gorgeous character home is hard not to like. The original 3 bedroom home is the quintessential country cottage with timber sash windows, polished hardwood floors and a fireplace for the few chilly nights we have in Brunswick.

In the north-facing back yard, just beyond a large back deck, there's a very cute free-standing guest accommodation with a bathroom and kitchenette. An ideal space for extended family or conversion to a granny flat. In addition, there's also a separate artist's studio filled with natural light and another office/storage space.

It's located on one of the quietest streets in the village which is only a short walk or pedal to the cafes, pub, river or beach. A rare find indeed.
