

Contemporary Living

This gorgeous contemporary home is an elegant option for downsizers not willing to downgrade, and for young families wanting space without the big price tag. A sun-filled home which immediately impresses with a large living room, extra-large kitchen, extensive storage, high ceilings and an intelligent floor plan for easy living all year round.

Located in one of the only cul de sacs in Ocean Shores which offers the convenience of a 2-minute flat stroll to the shopping centre and the benefits provided by the surrounding national park. The centre has a Coles, tavern, medical centre, bakery and many other specialty stores. It is only a 2-minute drive to Brunswick Heads and 30 minutes to Coolangatta Airport.

The large master suite has a walk-in robe and ensuite and is well separated from other bedrooms with its' own private balcony.

The property is fully fenced and landscaped for privacy which also keeps the children or pets safely inside the yard. It also features reverse cycle aircon and indoor-outdoor living on the timber deck.
